

Praxis

Between April, 1, 2008 and March 31st, 2009, 22 out of 22 students reporting scores back to the Department of Speech-Language-Hearing Sciences at the University of Minnesota have passed the PRAXIS examination. See <http://www.asha.org/students/praxis/> for information from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association about PRAXIS.

Program Completion Rates

Between April, 1, 2008 and March 31, 2009, over 99% of students who initiated studies in our graduate professional degrees completed their education and achieved the M.A. in Speech-Language-Hearing Sciences (Speech-Language Pathology track) or the Au.D. in Audiology. Over 95% of students who successfully completed the first semester in the program achieved their degrees.

Employment Rates

Between April 1, 2008 and March 31, 2009, 98% of students enrolled in our graduate professional degrees have secured employment shortly before or immediately after graduation.